Dear Sister,

Friday, November 4 - Saturday, November 5, 2016

• The Dwelling Place International Church • 449 US Hwy 72, Suite 137 • Collierville, TN 38017 •

The purpose of Total Recall 2016 is to provide an edifying and enlightening getaway for women to withdraw from the busyness of life and expose the necessary awareness for kingdom productivity. We are inviting you to enjoy a weekend geared to help you Regroup through Rejoicing, Refreshing, Resetting, and Releasing workshops and activities!

Full Registration is $80. Friday and Saturday options are specified on the enclosed Total Recall's registration form. Space is limited for the retreat, so early registration is highly encouraged.

Included in the cost of full registration is all retreat meals, exclusive panel discussions, and full access to multiple sessions designed to help attendees recall their unique, intimate relationships with our Creator and realign their hearts, minds, and spirits; the retreat closeout session will be open to the public. Off-site lodging is available at nearby hotels (Information attached).

Vendors are welcome for a fee of only $25 for the entire weekend.

Payment plans are available. If you have any questions, please contact Trudy Hunter at 901.496-8606 or email at trbhunter@bellsouth.net. Also, please visit tiffanyswift.org, as more information will be posted periodically about the event.

We have included a registration form and a listing (abbreviated) of the session topics being offered during the retreat. Feel free to make copies at your convenience. I look forward to seeing each of you at Total Recall 2016.
